WE'RE HIRING!

Gain experience in aviation this summer: Ramp Coordinator positions available.

Helicopter Ramp Coordinator
Full-time seasonal positions
May - September in Girdwood, Alaska

Alpine Air Alaska operates daily charters helicopter tours and from our base in Girdwood. We are for Ramp Coordinators to lookina oversee the busy day-to-day operations on the helicopter ramp this summer. This is a customer-facing role, working with a smile is a must.

Training equipment and be provided, but and/or prior aviation logistics experience is plus. Applicants need to have a positive attitude, be comfortable communicating with visitors, and show a willingness to learn. Must be 18 or older to apply.

Responsibilities include:

- Safely loading/unloading guests and gear
- Ensuring each aircraft & pilot are accurately assigned to the correct passenger groups for tours and charter flights
- Building, recieving, and hooking up sling loads for helicopter transfers to nearby locations
- Fueling aircraft, washing windows
- Assisting with minor pilot regusts

Apply now! Send your resume and cover letter to: info@alpineairalaska.com